Notice of Copyright Infringement

We respect the intellectual property of others, and we ask our users to do the same. To the extent that you have provided any work and if you believe that your work has been copied and is accessible on this Site in a way that constitutes copyright infringement, please provide Harsco Minerals International's Office of Corporate Communications with the following information:

- (a) identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed;
- (b) identification of the allegedly infringing material on the Site that is requested to be removed;
- (c) your name, address and daytime telephone number, and an e-mail address if available, so that Harsco Minerals International or Harsco Corporation may contact you if necessary;
- (d) a statement that you have a good faith belief that use of the copyrighted work is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent or the law;
- (e) a statement that the information in the notification is accurate and, under penalty of perjury, that the signatory is authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive copyright right that is allegedly infringed; and
- (f) an electronic or physical signature of the copyright owner or someone authorized on the owner's behalf to assert infringement of copyright and to submit the statement.

The Copyright Agent for Notice of claims of copyright infringement on the Site can be reached at info@harscominerals.com or the mailing address noted above.

If Harsco Minerals International is notified of any claims of copyright infringement on the Site, it may investigate the allegation and determine in good faith and at its sole discretion whether to remove or request the removal of the work or material. Harsco Minerals International has no liability or responsibility to users for performance or nonperformance of such activities.
